

Medals and Awards 2006

The BGA is responsible for submitting nominations for the Royal Aero Club's award in respect of gliding.

We would welcome submissions from member clubs in respect of the following awards:

Ann Welch Memorial Award - awarded to the BGA, BHPA or BMAA instructor (exceptionally to a non-instructor) whose activity has made a significant contribution to education and training in Gliding, Hang-gliding and Paragliding and Microlight aviation. This activity will normally be in flying instruction but, exceptionally, may include proven aids in associated subjects such as navigation and meteorology.

The President's Rolex Trophy - awarded to a young person or group of young people between the ages of fourteen and twenty one, for outstanding work, performance or achievement in connection with any aspect of aerospace activity.

The Cowburn & Kay Old & Bold Trophy - awarded to a person aged 65 or over who flies or who has only ceased flying in the previous year, and who has been conspicuously involved in aviation and sport aviation in particular, for their work, initiative, devotion or in other ways.

Nominations in respect of gliding should be made by BGA member clubs and sent to:
