EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY - BGA AIRWORTHINESS QUALITY ASSISTANTS

The BGA is looking for two Quality Assistants to support the BGA Quality Manager with the implementation of the BGA Airworthiness Quality System. There are two positions: one centrally based in the north of the UK, and the other in the south.

This remunerated role includes:

- Inspector and site auditing
- Aircraft audits
- General support of the BGA Quality Manager

The ideal applicant will have;

- An aviation quality background or thorough knowledge of aviation
- Experience (current or retired) as a BGA inspector and/or as a CAA licenced engineer
- A good knowledge of Part M and related BGA and CAA regulations
- Familiarity with gliding as a fundamentally volunteer managed sport
- Confident and effective verbal and written communication skills

The role is home based on an initial commitment of 3-4 days per month. Applicants must be willing to travel in their own vehicle. Basic IT skills (MS Word, etc) as well as access to broadband and email are essential.

This position might suit a retired or semi-retired person from the aviation industry or similar who is an experienced glider inspector and interested in quality assurance and supporting the BGA in maintaining airworthiness standards.

Salary negotiable.

Applications enclosing your CV and a covering letter stating what you could bring to this interesting and remunerated position should be submitted in confidence to;
